Passenger numbers were stable in June compared to last year. Airlines are filling more seats on each flight and the June load factor increased 8% to 75%.

For the first time since January 2013, quarterly passenger numbers were stable. Although the Sydney route has been cancelled, this has been offset by a 20% increase of passengers on regional Queensland routes.

Between April and June this year, 177,000 passenger flew on the Brisbane route. This is a 3% increase on the quarter ending June 2016.
